The Signs That Cause Belief

This is critical for understanding what the Father is doing among man, even now!

What a wonderful word in the title for this account—Belief! And of course to have belief, one must first have been offered evidence. But the real problems in the Scriptures are these constant mysteries and even parables—dating all the way back to Samson, and even the Garden. The Father hides things so that they will not be fulfilled until even thousands of years later. There are examples after examples after examples of these throughout the Scriptures. Just the coming of the Son of God is a good example. And He complicates it even more by coming early, and then He left! What is man to think of these matters? And frankly, He was not to be back for another three thousand years! Three hours on the cross would mean three thousand years for the church in darkness! And even there, He has to cut time short lest no man be saved! “Unless those days had been cut short (from 3,000 to 2,000), no flesh would have been saved; but through the elect those days will be cut short” (Matt. 24:22)! And this is indeed a most critical passage. But the good thing is that we now know what He is doing. It’s upon us. And the reality is that these changes make perfect sense—of course. Let us proceed.

Something we need so desperately in the earth—which is filled with ignorance and Godless behavior, both outside of and in the church—is for the Father to reveal Himself to man and make it clear what He is doing. And frankly, that could include reconciling all of the different religions. And I would say that Exodus 4:1-5 tells us how this begins to come about. This is where Moses was preparing to deliver the Israelites out of Egypt, and we have our own bondage right now, and equally need deliverance. It’s called the flesh! Let us read.

Then Moses said, “What if they will not believe me or listen to what I say? For they may say, ‘Yahweh has not appeared to you.’” Yahweh said to him, “What is that in your hand?” And he said, “A staff.” Then He said, “Throw it on the ground.” So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it. But Yahweh said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand and grasp it by its tail” —so he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand —“that they may believe that Yahweh, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

The serpent, Satan, has been taking man to death for 6,000 years, including the 2,000 swine that have been cast into the sea—Christianity’s 2,000 years! And this even included the first Remnant. And what happened to Judas? As prophesied by Yahshua, at the last supper "Satan then entered into him" (John 13:27, Luke 22:3), and he went out and betrayed Him. Now possessed by Satan, he then went out and hung himself. And thereupon, as declared by Yahshua Himself, Satan entered into him to now occupy the office of Judas, even as Yahshua clearly stated: "Did I Myself not choose you, the twelve, and yet one of you is the devil" (John 6:70)! Period! For 2,000 years, Satan has been the twelfth apostle! And when the apostles sought to fill that office, as designed it was already filled! Yahshua did not cast lots to see who the apostles were. He clearly stated it to be none other than Satan. And this was most clearly attested when Moses' staff was turned into a serpent, and returned to being a staff in hand. But rightly so, the church has been blind to this for 2,000 years!

Matthias was a mistake with the casting of lots, marking the undoing of the first Remnant, even the beginning of the end. Satan has had that office for two thousand years – the two thousand swine, that all go to death! But his time is now over, and that office has gone back to a man, as it not only should, but MUST! Moses' staff tells us this. Staff – Serpent – Staff. It's obvious! That is the rib that must establish the latter twelve apostles, the latter twelve ribs, making the twenty-four elders around the throne. It is even the Elijah who prepares the way for Immanuel. Amen! And it is all obvious government.

Let us now look at the next sign that causes belief, reinforcing the first sign. Here we read in Exodus 4:6-7:

Yahweh furthermore said to him, "Now put your hand into your bosom." So he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous like snow. Then He said, "Put your hand into your bosom again." So he put his hand into his bosom again, and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was restored like the rest of his flesh.

I can tell you what I hope for regarding this second sign, and I just recently saw it. And frankly, it is something I have not had much hope for. Our bosom speaks of something that is close to us, and that would certainly be the case concerning my family. Every one of them have rejected me. This includes my wife and five children, all of whom are married, and all but one have children. And I have grandchildren, but have never seen even one of them. And to add further to this, my Christian brother will not allow me into his house (2 John 1:10). What is the problem? It is because of what I believe, so they all reject me.

And when I think of the bosom, I think of intimacy, affection, desiring to be with one another, and I once had that heart-warming relationship with my family. And when the Spirit came upon me in 1994, and began revealing the truth of the Bride, it was wonderful, wonderful truth! Also, the Father provided a nice home for us in beautiful Washington State, out in the country with plenty of acreage, and I could not ask for more.

But time changed things, and I began to lose my family. Finally, with the influences of Christians, my wife wanted to leave, and I let her go with my two younger children, while my son and I remained. And eventually I lost him as well. They all went back to Christianity, and I remained with the Bride. There was NO WAY I could deny this amazing undeniable truth, and the Father continued to teach me. And one of the most prolific writing periods in my life was in fact after they left. And I have been alone ever since then, until now with Jim (and Caleb), and the Father has always kept me in His hands.

So one can well say with regard to my precious family, that I have indeed put my hand in my bosom, and it has come out leprous like snow! And frankly, I have certainly been treated like a leper, by my family and others – unclean and to be denied. I have walked in those steps, and felt the ridicule and pain of being regarded as unclean, including from my brother. But there is indeed hope, for it was by the healed leper in Leviticus 14 where the second bird ascends alive. That is indeed my ultimate hope!

As per the message regarding Moses, I have certainly placed my hand in my bosom where there is close intimacy, even the closest. And as far as my family is concerned, I am indeed leprous! And they definitely treat me that way, and will have NOTHING to do with me! “Unclean, unclean!” And this has been so for nineteen years! And now, I want to put my hand in my bosom again, and my family see me for what I really am, along with so many others. I pray this period of rejection will soon be over, even as it was for Moses. And both of these Exodus 4 testimonies have the much-needed effect of bringing belief. Oh, oh, so may it be Father, for my family and many, many others!

And let us note that there was one final conclusion in this account regarding Moses. In Exodus 4:8-9 we read:

“If they will not believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they may believe the witness of the last sign. But if they will not believe even these two signs or heed what you say, then you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground.”

I hate to even think what that would mean for my family, or for all of Christianity, or even all of mankind. As it is written, “Unless those days had been cut short, no flesh would have been saved!” But most gratefully, they will be cut short: "but through the elect (the Bride who deciphers these truths, and much, much more) those days will be cut short" – from 3,000 years to 2,000 years! Have mercy on us, oh Father, and save us!

Amen!
