The Coming Kingdom and Blessed Are The Poor

There are some changes coming on the horizon, and let us see what they will hopefully bring.

As you may know, Jim McManus sold his home in Longmont, Colorado, and gave the entirety of the sale to the Bride. And, it was quite substantial. Following that, in Australia Rian Burger sold his home and equally gave the entirety of the sale to the Bride. And furthermore, these two acts are highly scriptural to perform, in that the rich young ruler was equally told by Yahshua to sell all and give it to the poor—which is the same challenge the Bride is to face, and to follow.

And keep in mind in this account regarding the rich young ruler that Matthew is relative to the first Remnant, Mark is Christianity, and Luke is the second Remnant. Knowing this, curiously, and you will need to read this quite carefully and thoughtfully, regarding the premature first Remnant, which Mathew attests to, in Matthew 5:3 we read: “Blessed are the poor in Spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.” But per the fulfilling second Remnant attested by Luke, in Luke 6:20 we read in this identical account: “Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.” So, what is it to be “poor in Spirit” with regard to the first Remnant? The first Remnant was indeed “poor in Spirit,” for they were cut short—possessing only a year and a half of the Holy Spirit former rain. But, what do we, the fulfilling second Remnant, experience? Literally, the seventh-day “kingdom of God”! This latter rain will have a duration of two years, and bring Immanuel back to this earth to rule and reign. And equally significant, none of these blessings are listed in Christianity Mark. They are the two-thousand-year breach, with which we today are all too familiar!

So again, what did Yahshua say to us, the concluding and fulfilling second Remnant? We too have to become poor, giving up everything. And it appears that that fulfillment is now beginning. And, after the seven trips to Kenya, the way is opening for us to go to India, specifically New Delhi. And, we did not receive the latter rain in Kenya, and it appears that that could come in India. And regarding these two outcomes, we see first the image of Satan on Africa, then second the like image on India, but now that of a man, and Satan’s horn has distinctly been broken off! And instead of the head being crushed, it expands throughout the earth! Click here for this visual comparison.

Now for a further update. I noted how Jim and Rian gave the entirety of the funds they received from the sale of their homes. Following their example and the fulfillment of the rich young ruler who failed to do so, and the message we see in the Scriptures regarding this act, I will do likewise. I own my home outright, and have now placed it on the market via a realtor here in Salem. You can see the listing and photos by clicking here. It is a beautiful home—after I totally gutted it and restored it in full according to my desires and pleasures. And the wonderful thing is that the Father was with me throughout the entire process, including restoring, improving, and enhancing the immediate grounds, even the eight acres of property and the barn. And most assuredly, this renovation desperately needs to happen to the kingdom of heaven on earth, the church, to which this property attests. You will see what I mean by reading *My Home—The Tabernacle*.

And most assuredly, I'm ready to cash this intercession in for the true and much needed fulfillment! It is not that I am eager to lose the house, but more so I want to inherit the fulfillment—and it's worth the shot at this. And the reality is that the only way I can do this is to walk out what Jim and Rian have already done, and what the rich young ruler failed to do, and sell all. Life is more than the natural. In fact, it can cause one to pass by that which is of greater value. "Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God." Amen. And most noteworthy and relevant, in James 2:5 we read: "Listen, my beloved brethren: did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?" As we approach the coming of Yahshua, surely He will judge man on this very matter, and where will you be found? Again, "Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God."

Amen.
