“Black Lives Matter”

“From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. For all the prophets and the Law prophesied until John. And if you are willing to accept it, John himself is Elijah who was to come. He who has ears to hear, let him hear” (Mathew 11:12-15).

So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.” The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual (1 Corinthians 15:45-46).

The violence we are seeing today in the Black Lives Matter movement, is in fact what is taking place in the church, and has been so for two thousand years. “The kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and violent men take it by force.” This is the fate that was physically evidenced in the Reformation when the Catholics physically took the kingdom by force with violence. But this violence goes beyond the physical, the natural, and has its greatest fulfillment in the spiritual. Man in the flesh will always produce flesh works, flesh outcomes. It is inherent! It is inevitable!

Truly, the only way the pure kingdom of heaven can be produced on the earth is when it is carried out by those who have put off the earthly and put on the heavenly. As it is written, we must be born from above. Up to now, no one but Yahshua has done so. Because He had the power of an indestructible life—His body not coming from the serpent sperm, but by the Holy Spirit—He could die, come back out of the grave, be carried up into heaven, remain there for eight days per the Nazirite vow, and return in His body that is now literally born from above. It is now heavenly. That is what ALL men must go through, but each in their own order.

Therefore, it was and is inevitable that Christianity would be a complete failure in its ability to bring forth the true kingdom. And only now, after two thousand years, is it even possible for a people to follow in the way prepared by Yahshua and truly be born from above. And in the natural, even groups like Black Lives Matter are, in their own ways, seeking to take the kingdom by force. Truly, what they want is socialism, even communism. But that is only possible when the Son of God returns. This is what the first Remnant performed in the beginning of the church until Stephen was stoned and persecution cut it short. And this is what Immanuel will set up when He returns. This is the “one thing that you still lack.” It is: “sell all that you possess and distribute it to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me” (Matthew 19:16-26, Mark 10:17-27, and Luke 18:18-30). And that “Come follow Me” will take you right into heaven. Read One Thing You Still Lack.

Thus, kingdom men have done exactly what the Black Lives Matter people are doing. They each have tried to take the kingdom by force. And the fires that they set are the fires that need to indeed come so as to purify all men and bring forth true light Luke 12:49). Amen! The only answer for the church and all mankind is for a people to be caught up into heaven, be born into heavenly bodies, and return with Immanuel, who will set up His kingdom.

So, if Black Lives Matter is a shadowy shadow, what then is the much-needed fulfillment today? We now see it taking place in Africa. And if you really want to see the true and effectual black lives that matter, if you want to know the real solution to man's social and spiritual problems, then all you have to do is look to Africa, look to Kenya, and you will find it. They in Africa matter greatly, if you are looking for a way to find a solution to this world's grave, grave ills.

There is great evidence that what is taking place among the black man of Africa is the beginning of what will change the world. If we see the Holy Spirit fall on us as on the day of Pentecost, but this time at Tabernacles, it will in fact change the world, completing what began two thousand years ago. And if we are successful there in Africa, it seems evident that we will next go to the black man of India and see the same outcome. Yahweh will go to the lowly, the despised, those who are not so that He nullifies those who are (1 Corinthians 1:28). It is His way.

So it is with wonder that we watch and we wait and we hope concerning those things that are before us. And what we will find is that black lives do indeed matter, and the curse will finally begin to be removed off of all mankind. Blessed be Yahweh forever!
