Purim—The Revelation Of The Elijah

Last night, on March 10, I was up at 11:00 p.m., weary and even troubled by what might be before us. I spoke to the Father something I say from time to time after twenty-three years of seeking the fulfillment of the Bride. I said, "Father, I am soooo tired!" And with this I instantly saw/understood something. Let me explain.

At the beginning of the church, immediately after Yahshua's departure, the apostles did something that introduced corruption into it—they cast lots for a replacement of Judas. As I have discussed many times, that office was for the Elijah—first with Judas, who baptized Yahshua into death; then it went to Satan, who has baptized the Body of Christ into death; and finally it must go to the fulfilling Elijah, who will bring Immanuel back to this earth. Thus, there is: death, burial, and resurrection!

I will ask you: Did the apostles do wrong in casting/giving lots for that office? Yes, without a doubt. But was it the will of the Father that they did that? Again yes, without a doubt. Let me now share what I suddenly saw.

We have the Bride's New Millennial Calendar Purim coming up on March 14 and 15. And as we have seen, it is the test of Carmel as to whom is right—Christians, the Jews, or the Bride? Can you tell me what "Purim" means? It is the plural form of "pur," or "lot." So, Purim means "lots." Why did I say that what the apostles did had to be done? Because it was a first-bird act that had to die, bring death (Leviticus 14). Therefore, what is the second-bird fulfillment? If Judas was not the ultimate fulfillment (and certainly not Mathias), and gratefully Satan is not the ultimate fulfillment, then who and what is? The answer—the Elijah.

Now, let us take this to its conclusion. And what I saw next gave me great hope. And by the way, I saw all of this within a second or two. When the first Remnant cast lots for the replacement of Judas, they were unknowingly looking to today when Purim, or Lots, can now be fulfilled! This March 14-15 feast should reveal who the Elijah truly is. The failure of the lots cast by the eleven apostles in revealing the twelfth, looks to the much-needed revelation of the true Elijah at Lots, or Purim. I have no idea how this can or will take place, or what the Father will do; but everything points to the revelation of the Elijah at this feast.

Also, if there could ever have been an Elijah in Christianity who could have brought forth Immanuel, it would have been Billy Graham. He was their last and best effort at this. But as we saw in the last report, he died and laid in honor in the Capitol during the Jew's Purim, February 28-March 1. Thereupon, they removed him and put him in the grave the next day. What we need now is life, and the only work that can indeed provide this is the Elijah. It is quite revealing that Christianity is two thousand years of swine with Legion in them, and they have all gone to the sea of death (Mark 5:13). Is it not then striking that in Graham's name we find "ham": Gra-ham? That is not happenstance for this highly prophetic man. The two thousand years of swine/ham-Christianity have all gone to the sea of death! The gospel that Christians have preached COULD NOT deliver them from death! That which must be preached/taught is only possible through the Elijah, who brings forth Immanuel. Today, we now need to see Haman-Satan lift up the Mordecai Elijah on the King's horse.

We watch and wait, and look to the Father with hope.

Amen.
