Satan's Workings And His/Her End

There is a Bride brother who shared something with me that was in line with some things I was already pondering. And, what he shared concerning his family was right in line with my own family. But most important and vital here is the power and necessity of intercession/identification, where the natural reveals and even precedes the spiritual. You will understand this as you read his account, as well as my own experience.

This Bride brother is the father of four children. But as a result of the strong influences of a church where he and his family were formerly attending, their family ended up being divided two and four. Unfortunately, a decision was made that the wife be sent away from the church with one of the children, leaving him with the remaining three children—and it has been this way to this very day. Of course he is Bride now and she does not go to that church anymore; but even so the experience at that church thus far keeps her from coming home.

Presently he is experiencing some frustrations with his children, and is very concerned about this. Just recently he was talking with the oldest daughter about this and commented that there must be a "hole" somewhere which is giving Satan the right to use his children to vex him and cause him continuing frustration. And when he said this, it suddenly occurred to him that the hole could be his wife's disobedience to her husband in refusing to come home when instructed to do so. With this introduction, let us now continue with what he wrote to me:

According to Gen 3:15 there seems to be a strong link between the woman and her children and Satan. So my thoughts were: as long as my wife will not submit, my children are in constant conflict between wanting to do what is right, but in the end doing what is wrong. Because their mother will not submit to her husband, there is no proper covering to protect them from Satan's influences. I suppose this kind of makes sense in the bigger picture where many of God's children (e.g., especially Christians) want to do what is right and obey the heavenly Father, but end up listening to their mother (Satan) who won't submit to the Father in heaven, being a Vashti that won't come when she's called. Therefore they end up naturally following after her in her insubordination, as was warned by the king's wise men in Esther 1:17: "For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, 'The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.'" So what then is the solution? I guess I will have to wait till "the King's decree which He shall make shall be published throughout all His empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honor, both to great and small" (Esther 1:20). O may Yahweh give that degree to banish Satan to the pit, and then there will be much hope for us as husbands, because our wives' eyes will be opened and they will once again bring honor to their husbands! [Amen to this!]

I also find this interesting in Esther 1:19: "If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she." In Job 1:6 it says: "Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, and Satan came also among them." It seems from this that the only reason Satan comes before God is when he wants to accuse us before Him as indicated in Revelation 12:9-10: "for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night." When he is bound, he can no longer come before the King to accuse us and stir God up against us to do us evil. And then his "estate," the world, will be given to another who is better than her, the Bride that will rule and reign with Immanuel. HalleluYah!

I think there is a lot of truth in what this brother shared—both in regard to his home and in regard to mankind. And what makes this so close to home for me is that this is precisely what I have experienced in my own family. If my wife had not left and rejected me, my children would not be separated from me, their head. But she too has listened to the original one, Satan, who rejected his/her head, Yahweh, and mankind has ever since followed him/her. I call this the "umbilical cord effect," where all creation is tied all the way back to the woman, and her actions. And it can apply to the natural as well today. It is truly this effect that has turned all of my own children away from me, their father. If my wife had not listened to Satan and rejected me, but rather stayed with me, her husband, I would still have my children, my offspring. But the "umbilical cord" to their mother has kept them away from me.

This brother, as well as myself, have become intercessors—having identified with the Father who is in heaven. We feel things the way He feels them, thereupon gaining vital understanding; and equally important is the sharing of His sorrows. There are some things about becoming like God that are very painful and costly. This brother and myself know what it feels like for the Father. Furthermore, King Ahasuerus learned what it feels like to be rejected when Vashti would not come; and not only this, but he sensed the GREAT and destructive example it was to others. This is the hole the Bride brother spoke of. And King Ahasuerus was given to us as an example so that we could see the misdeed of Satan and the GREAT need for the obedient Esther Bride. And keep in mind, there is a direct tie between the woman and Satan, originating all the way back to the Garden when Eve listened to the serpent and Adam listened to the voice of the woman who was deceived by none other than Satan—and all mankind fell. And today you see the full bloom of this sin in the Women's Rights Movement, including women in ministry in the church, where the woman follows in the way and works of Satan and seeks to be in the place of the man—vis-à-vis, mankind in the place of God. This is nothing less than the rebellion evidenced first in Satan. And as the brother here realized, it is the selfsame spirit that possess wives and other women today—the hole! "That which has been is that which will be, and that which has been done is that which will be done. So there is [INDEED] nothing new under the sun" (Ecclesiastes 1:9).

Yahweh God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, cursed are you more than all cattle, and more than every beast of the field; on your belly you will go, and dust you will eat all the days of your life" (Genesis 3:14). All the days of Satan's "life," he/she has devoured mankind who is made of the dust of the ground, and has continued to deceive the woman who is cursed for listening to him/her. And to the man, Adam, He declared: "Because you have listened to the voice of your woman, ..." (Genesis 3:17). And the ground from which he was made was cursed, ensuring that he would in sorrow eat of it's effects and sadly bring forth thorns and thistles. "That which has been ... ." Oh, oh for the coming of Immanuel, who alone can reverse this curse, bind Satan, and take a remnant into heaven and place them into the MUCH, MUCH needed bodies that are no longer of the earth but from above—now finally free from that body that was given to mankind only after the fall and the result of the curse, that body which was given to us by the serpent sperm being cast down to the earth egg! This is the body that is given to us by "Hagar," in which we are in slavery. And the body we have to have is the one that is birthed by Jerusalem above (Galatians 4:24-26). Finally, finally we will thereupon be free from that which is below, free from our slavery, and enter into that which is birthed from above—for which we were created from the beginning! Amen and amen! Come quickly Immanuel and deliver and transform us for your kingdom's sake!
