

GARY REPORT

Taking The Kingdom By Force

"From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and violent men take it by force" (Matthew 11:12).

When I lived in the Dallas area before moving out to the ranch where the Spirit came upon me, there were two Charismatic mega churches there. One was Church on the Rock in Rockwall, pastored by Larry Lee; and the other was Word of Faith in Farmers Branch, pastored by Robert Tilton. I had attended Church on the Rock in its infancy when they met in a high school; but regarding Word of Faith, I had no interest whatsoever in attending it, for it was a name-it-and-claim-it type church. And, both churches ultimately dramatically failed, and both pastors divorced their wives and remarried. And I would add here, these two pastors evidence what has happened to two thousand years of Christianity—it is corrupted and fails.

But the reason I bring this up is that there was indeed one occasion that I did go to Word of Faith. It was not to attend that church per se, but they had a speaker/teacher there whom I had heard before and it was on the subject of end times. So I went there to hear more about this, and in hindsight the man was of course mistaken about this subject. But it was actually something Tilton said that has stuck with me throughout all these years. They were in the final phase of the building program and needed carpet, and he emphasized that "they have to take the kingdom by force." Of course his reference was to Matthew 11:12. I could not believe he would take a passage like that, which is entirely negative, and use it to support his actions. But on the other hand, that is what Christianity does. They seek to take the kingdom by force and in the end fail miserably! Did Tilton get his carpet? He did indeed, but in time that work was his downfall.

But in this Report, we are not looking at Christianity's failure alone to bring forth the true and much needed heavenly kingdom, but the failure of all mankind to do so. You might object that the world is not trying to bring forth the kingdom of God, but in fact they are. This need is written on the heart of man:

He [God] has made everything appropriate in its time. He has also set eternity in their heart, yet so that man will not find out the work which God has done from the beginning even to the end (Ecclesiastes 3:11).

Let me give you some examples of this quest to bring forth the Kingdom. In New York we have the building for the United Nations. That desire for union is actually in the heart of man, even a one-world government or globalism. But the reality is that, gratefully, they will never succeed in this, and in fact it looks to the uniting of all nations under one King, Yahshua. He will unite all nations in peace. But meanwhile, that effort by man brings forth little more than corruption. And the reason for this is that it is rooted in the corrupted flesh of man. What man wants to happen and experience as noted in the above scripture, cannot be fulfilled by fallen flesh man. The kingdom suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. And the reality is that they do not even know what their efforts truly portend.

Let me give you another comparison, for this is nothing new to man in that from the beginning he has sought to fulfill the kingdom in the natural and utterly fails. In Genesis 11 the whole earth was united, having the same language, and they sought to build a city and "a tower whose top will reach into heaven." This is mankind, and especially so the church, wanting to reach into heaven. But did they succeed and by their actions give Yahweh God pleasure? No more than man today, including the church, pleases Him. Why? Because it is a work performed by fallen flesh men, including Christianity. And there is none more divided, speaking in so many "languages," than fractured Christianity. It is even moreso Babylonian confusion, while reaching up to the heavens.

Hitler also testified to the same desire. He sought to bring forth the Third Reich, the third realm, even the third kingdom. But did he succeed? He made a profound effort, but in the end he too failed. And this is precisely where the church is. The third part of the kingdom of heaven is the Millennial Reign. And is man in and of himself able to bring forth that kingdom? No more so than Hitler was able to do so. The kingdom suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. Christianity, even all mankind, would utterly and entirely fail for three thousand years unless Yahshua cuts those days short from three to two and comes early. As Yahshua said Himself, "Unless those days had been cut short, no flesh would have been saved; but through the elect those days will be cut short" (Matthew 24:22 and Mark 13:20). The elect is not the nations, it is not Christians, but it is the Bride who in the latter work is brought forth in and through the latter rain of the Spirit. Also read Zechariah 13:7-9 and Hosea 6:1-3 concerning the days of Christianity being cut short from three to two.

But by far the most tragic and destructive and revealing testimony there is today of the failure of mankind is that seen in the woman seeking the place of the man, being equal to the man. And if not the most, one graphic evidence of this today is Nancy Pelosi as the head of the House (the woman being the head of the house), and her four female agitators, the Squad, as she/they seek to usurp, destroy, and overthrow the prophetic type of Immanuel, the head of this nation, Donald Trump. As it is written, there is nothing new under the sun, and the natural once again reveals and attests to the spiritual.

But here is the twist. What Pelosi and her Squad of females actually attest to is the fulfillment wherein the Bride rules and reigns with Immanuel. But these women seek to take the kingdom by force. In fact, they represent Satan who was the bride of the Father, and he/she is at the heart of their actions. There is no difference between Nancy and the Squad in conflict with President Trump, and Satan being in conflict with the Father, or for that matter women seeking to be the head of the home or even have headship in the churches. It is all the same spirit, all the same thing, rooted in the one who gave us these bodies wherein the serpent sperm was cast down to the earth egg. It is the spirit and works of Satan, the usurper, the deceiver.

So what is the solution for mankind? If one asked this question to the masses, the various answers would be practically innumerable. But given what we know, and the Bride alone has the answer, is that there indeed must be a female work that effects deliverance for all mankind. You see, women are not wrong that a female must come forth to solve the issues of mankind; but, it must be legal. This is most important and even critical. A woman does not have the right to rule and govern, but only the man. So, how do we get a man to be a female? And in this world what do we see today? Drag queens! We see homosexual marriages where one man is the wife. So are they the answer? Absolutely not! Then if a woman must come forth to govern, how can this be afforded so that it is legal? The answer—the bride of the Lamb must be formed and established with the male Elijah and the latter twelve male apostles, along with any other offices fulfilled by men, including teachers. The female Bride alone, under the headship of the male, can and will fulfill this work in which others strive to fulfill in corruption. It is male leadership in a female work—the Bride. And with this, she can birth Immanuel back to this earth and rule and reign with Him. Amen!

So do you see what all of these perversions are in truth seeking to effect? In truth they seek to be the Bride but fall tragically short! The Curse of 1920 where women seek to take the place of the man, along with the surge of feminism in the 70s, are nothing less than the woman desiring to fulfill Immanuel's Bride. And this includes the marked rise of women teachers, pastors, and priests in Christianity, and women wearing the man's pants and seeking his role in society. But these will not qualify them as males, and before God and man they will be abased. It is their failed and wholly unlawful efforts to bring forth a bride for Immanuel. But what are women really doing, along with their worldliness? They too are seeking to take the kingdom by force, and are failing miserably with great damage to the home and society! If Yahweh God does not bring forth a Bride under male leadership, it will be "My God, my God, why have You forsaken us?" But as He promised, "through the elect those days will be cut short!" Amen and amen!

And this position taken by the woman that leads to absolute ruin is nothing new, and quite appropriately and tellingly goes all the way back to the beginning when in the Garden the woman listened to the tempter, the serpent Satan, and thereupon the man listened to the voice of the woman. Here again, in these natural bodies the weakness is to listen to the weaker vessel, even as we read in 1 Timothy 2:14: "And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman being greatly deceived, fell into transgression." This is the critical failure of a female work, and has to be redeemed so that a female reverses that curse. But this is ONLY possible through the redeeming Bride.

And in the original Garden Adam was cursed, beginning with the rebuke, "Because you have listened to the voice of your woman ..." (Genesis 3:17). This too has to be flipped and redeemed. But it is only possible with the Bride. There has to be a new Eve for the new Garden—one who will obey and not fall to the temptation and lies of Satan. There has to be a new Eve in the Kingdom. Here again, the first Garden was a first bird that had to die, and the second must ascend alive and be joined to the last Adam who is a "life-giving spirit" (1 Corinthians 15:45). There has to be a new Eve for the new Garden. Just as there was the first and last Adam, so there must be a first and last Eve. This is most important.

This new Bride, this new Eve, thereupon becomes the Jael who takes the tent peg and drives it into Satan Sisera's head and the woman gets the glory. Are you seeing this legal flip? But, this can only be possible with the higher dimension Bride. Likewise, she is the Abigail who seeks to deliver her foolish husband (the Body of Christ, Christianity) from David's wrath (1 Samuel 25), but Yahweh removes him anyway, for at this point their work is worthless—the meaning of Nabal's name. Christianity is worthless in bringing forth the true and much needed kingdom. And she is the Deborah (Judges 4), who sits under the palm tree, the testimony of a man's erect authority, and whose husband's name is Lappidoth, which means "torch," or the torch of Immanuel seen in the covenant with Abraham. With this amount of grave caution and evidence, the woman whom we CAN listen to with confidence and is so desperately needed is the Bride governed by men and will rule and reign with Immanuel. Amen!

Let me tell you, women today are naked, exposing their nakedness before God and man. Nakedness in the Bible was a curse placed upon a people who were being led away into bondage and rejection. That is precisely what women today testify—their humiliation and bondage. They think it is beautiful and sensual, but they are double guilty in causing men to sin, taking the role of a prostitute, and as a believer committing harlotry with the world. It is even a mark of insecurity, desiring the praise of men rather than God. And most significantly, it is the evidence and outcome of sin, when Adam and Eve violated Yahweh's command and they were naked and were cast out of the Garden. Women today testify to the weakness of the woman and sinning and being cast away from God and the tree of life. Women, your insecurity and desire for the praise of others is once again your downfall, with the outcome of being rejected by God.

But today, in the natural as well, there is a semblance of hope, though one may scoff at it, and that is that men are restoring the beard on their faces. Women may wear our clothes and cut their hair short and take our jobs and stand in the place of governance which specifically belongs to the man, but they will never, ever be able to grow the beard. And it appears that, even unknowingly, and hopefully as a precursor, men are becoming aware of this need to take his God-given place. We need men to be men—in the home, in the work force, in places of governance. And when Immanuel returns, He will restore His government where the head of the woman is the man, and the head of the man is Christ, whose head is the Father (1 Corinthians 11:3). And when women abandon their place, even as Satan (the wife of the Father) abandoned his/her place, it corrupts and erodes the Divine order of God.

And today, we look to the Father to prepare a bride for His Son, founded on proper government and truth where men take their proper abode and govern. May Yahweh establish His Elijah, and in time restore the twelve-and-one government Yahshua set forth in the beginning of the church. May He complete what He began two thousand years ago, and today give to us not only truth but power from on high.

Come quickly, Immanuel!

Amen.

Gary